

LORI

(sides for the role of LORI)

Lori is a loving wife whose memory and mental clarity has slowly begun to fade. What started as laughable mistakes throughout her day has slowly degenerated into waking up in the middle of the night not recognizing her husband of 32 years next to her in bed. A terrifying experience that has led to her begin a mental transformation and regimen program that has completely turned around her life.

“Who are you? Get out of my bed!” screeched Lori.

“Oh. I’m sorry...What happened?”

“Chris, are you sure this is going to work?”

*“Chris! I’ve been taking PQQ every day this week. I feel SO alive.
It’s like I’m a college kid again.”*
